

Conclusion Argumentative Essay Outline

Conclusion:

- I. Restate the thesis and main points of the essay
- II. Summarize the arguments that have been made in support of your thesis
- III. Highlight the importance of your topic and why it is relevant to readers
- IV. Offer a course of action or provide recommendations for further research or action
- V. End with a strong statement or call to action that emphasizes the importance of your topic and leaves readers feeling engaged and motivated.