

Vaccine Argumentative Essay Outline

I. Introduction

- A. Background information on vaccine safety and effectiveness
- B. Definition of key terms
- C. Thesis statement: Vaccines have significantly reduced the prevalence of many highly infectious diseases, and are safe for both children and adults.

II. Body Paragraph 1

- A. Scientific evidence showing the effectiveness of vaccines
- B. Examination of anti-vaccine arguments, and why they are not supported by scientific evidence

II. Body Paragraph 2

- A. Discussion of potential side effects from vaccines
- B. Explanation of how these side effects are rare and minor compared to the risks of not being vaccinated

III. Conclusion

- A. Summary of key points
- B. Reiteration of thesis statement: Vaccines have significantly reduced the prevalence of many highly infectious diseases, and are safe for both children and adults.

C. Call to action: Vaccination is an important part of public health, and we should all take responsibility for our own health and the health of those around us by getting vaccinated.

myperfectWords