

Deakin Oxford Referencing Example

Deakin University follows a specific version of the Oxford referencing style known as "Deakin Oxford." Here's an example of a book reference in the Deakin Oxford referencing style:

In-Text Citation:

In Deakin Oxford style, you use a footnote or endnote system to cite sources. For instance:

"The importance of sustainability in business practices cannot be overstated.^{^1}"

Footnote/Endnote:

In the corresponding footnote or endnote, you provide the full citation details for the source:

^{^1} Author's Full Name, Title of the Book (Place of Publication: Publisher, Year), page number if applicable.

Bibliography Entry:

In the bibliography, you provide a complete citation for the source, including all relevant details:

Author's Full Name, Title of the Book (Place of Publication: Publisher, Year)

Here's an example:

Footnote/Endnote:

^{^1} John Smith, Sustainability in Business: A Comprehensive Guide (Melbourne: Deakin University Press, 2021), 32.

Bibliography Entry:

John Smith, Sustainability in Business: A Comprehensive Guide (Melbourne: Deakin University Press, 2021)

Please note that Deakin Oxford referencing may have specific variations and requirements, so it's crucial to consult the full Deakin University referencing guidelines for comprehensive information on citing various types of sources and formatting.