

Home > blog > expository-essay > expository-essay-outline

Topic: "Why Recycling Is Important"

I. Introduction

A. Hook: Start by asking the question, "Have you ever wondered what happens to the things we throw away?"

B. Introduction to the topic: Explain that recycling is about reusing materials, and it's an essential practice for our environment.

C. Thesis statement: State, "In this essay, we will learn why recycling is important and how it helps our planet."

II. Body Paragraphs

A. First Main Point

1. Topic sentence: Introduce the first reason for recycling - it saves natural resources.

2. Supporting details: Provide examples like recycling paper to save trees, or recycling cans to save energy.

3. Explanation: Explain how recycling materials reduces the need to use new resources, benefiting the environment.

B. Second Main Point

1. Topic sentence: Introduce the second reason - it reduces pollution.

2. Supporting details: Explain how recycling reduces the amount of waste in landfills, which can cause pollution.

3. Explanation: Describe how recycling helps keep our air and water cleaner.

III. Conclusion

A. Restate the thesis statement: Say, "Recycling is important because it saves resources and reduces pollution."

B. Summarize key points: Remind the reader of the two main reasons discussed.

C. Closing statement: End with a call to action, such as "Let's all do our part and recycle to help protect our planet."