

Visual Analysis Self-Editing Checklist

Purpose:

A comprehensive revision guide to help writers polish content, clarity, and correctness before submission.

Content and Analysis

- Thesis is clear and interpretive
 - Analysis goes beyond description
 - Claims are supported by visual evidence
 - Interpretation is logical and focused
 - Context is relevant and accurate
-

Organization and Flow

- Introduction leads smoothly into analysis
 - Paragraphs follow logical order
 - Clear topic sentences
 - Strong transitions between ideas
 - Conclusion adds insight, not repetition
-

Writing Quality

- Clear and precise language
 - Formal academic tone
 - Sentence variety
 - No unnecessary repetition
 - Terminology used correctly
-

Technical Accuracy

- Correct citation format
- Visual referenced properly
- Consistent formatting
- Grammar and punctuation checked

AI Footprint Scan

- No generic filler phrases
 - Natural academic voice
 - Specific, image-based evidence
 - Human-like phrasing and structure
-

Final Polish

- Read aloud for clarity
- Peer review completed
- Submission requirements met